Modules and Inter-Modules

Modules take place on the campus of our international affiliate academic partners. Each module offers a packed schedule of courses, guest speakers, company visits and networking events, along with other dynamic, real-time learning opportunities. Your evenings are filled with group projects, individual assignments and time to explore the local cities. The period between modules is also quite busy. It's your chance to complete course assignments, group deliverables and exams while preparing for the next module.
