

Global Executive MBA for Healthcare and the Life Sciences

GEMBA-HLS participants bring together diverse perspectives

Global experience

Algeria	Italy	Sweden	Philippines
Australia	Kenya	Trinidad & Tobago	Qatar
Bangladesh	Kuwait	Germany	Saudi Arabia
Canada	New Zealand	Guatemala	Singapore
China	Nigeria	Haiti	Sudan
France	Senegal	India	UAE
Iran	South Africa	Nepal	UK
Ireland		Pakistan	USA
Israel

Function

- 34% Healthcare providers
- 26% Administrative leaders
- 21% Industry leaders
- 13% Scientists, researchers
- 6% Government, policy leaders

Job level

- 18% Physician
- 27% Director
- 9% President/VP/GM
- 18% Manager
- 5% Scientist
- 5% Medical advisor
- 9% C-level
- 8% Other

Profile

- 16 yrs. average work experience
- 8 yrs. average management experience
- 42 average age
- 54%-46% male-female ratio

Strategic leadership in healthcare and life sciences is essential. The Rotman School's Global Executive MBA for Healthcare and the Life Sciences is designed to help participants develop expertise to drive system-wide change, drawing on best practices from across the globe.

Benefits of GEMBA-HLS for organizations and health systems

- Integrate best practices and leading business research
- Access new insights and latest expertise to reshape your organization and health system and create patient value
- Reward top talent; retain high achievers
- Grow your reputation as industry leader and employer of choice
- Transform how your organization thinks, leads and drives healthcare and life sciences innovation in a world without boundaries

A global campus

This 18-month journey blends in-person and self-paced distance learning, and immerses participants in key healthcare clusters around the world:

- Toronto
- San Francisco
- Singapore
- London

Who GEMBA-HLS is for

Mid- to senior-level professionals working in healthcare and life sciences organizations:

- service delivery organizations
- care providers
- industry consulting firms
- public agencies
- the sciences suppliers and players
- payers regulatory professionals

Why the University of Toronto, and why Rotman?

- U of T is Canada's leading university and a global Top 20 learning institution
- The University invests over $1 billion per year in healthcare-related innovation
- Rotman faculty are world-renowned for thought leadership, tackling challenges across the healthcare/life sciences sector
- Rotman is uniquely positioned to play a leading role in healthcare/life sciences innovations with a dedicated health research focus through the Sandra Rotman Centre for Health Sector Strategy

#1
University in Canada

#18
Universities in the world

25
Rotman faculty members engaged in health-related research

www.rotman.utoronto.ca/GEMBA-HLS